DEFENDANTS' MAY 25, 2016, STATUS REPORT

Due to the present uncertainty<sup>1</sup> regarding which lawyers from the Department of Justice are no longer admitted to practice pro hac vice before this Court, the United States Attorney for the Southern District of Texas, files the attached declaration.

Dated: May 25, 2016

Respectfully submitted,

BENJAMIN C. MIZER
Principal Deputy Assistant Attorney General

KENNETH MAGIDSON
United States Attorney

---

<sup>1</sup> In its May 19, 2016, Memorandum Opinion and Order, the Court stated that, “[b]y a separate sealed order that it is simultaneously issuing,” it is “revok[ing] the pro hac vice status” of certain out-of-state lawyers. As of this filing that sealed order has not arrived at the office of Defendants’ Attorney in Charge.

JOYCE R. BRANDA
Deputy Assistant Attorney General
